Managing During Crisis: Scholars Share Strategies

WebEx Webinar
Sponsored by the Advancing Faculty Diversity Program
Thursday, April 30, 2020 | 12:00 – 1:00 pm

The COVID-19 pandemic has changed the way that faculty do research, teach classes, and manage their workload. During this webinar, scholars from across UMD’s campus share their strategies and perspectives on managing during crisis.

Speakers:
Carol Espy-Wilson, Professor, Electrical and Computer Engineering, ENGR
William Liu, Professor and Chair, Counseling, Higher Education, and Special Education, COE
Rashawn Ray, Associate Professor, Sociology, BSOS

The webinar is open to all UMD faculty members.

When: Thursday, April 30
12:00 – 1:00 pm
Where: WebEx Webinar
